Preamble

In terms of the provisions of section 51 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act No. 2 of 2000 (“the Act”), we are required to compile and publish a manual describing the categories on which we hold records and the subjects of records held on each category, as well as sufficient information to facilitate a request for access to our records.

This manual has been compiled to comply with the statutory requirements of the Act, but also in recognition of the spirit and objective of the Act, which aims to foster a culture of transparency and accountability and to promote a society in which our people have effective access to information to enable them to more fully exercise and protect their rights.

Introduction

Japan Marine Supplies and Services (“JMSS”) is a division of Japanese Ships Suppliers (Proprietary) Limited and provides Trading and Technical services to the Japanese long-line fishing vessels. This manual contains our corporate details, the categories of information held by JMSS, the categories of information which is freely available, and details of the procedure to be followed for a formal request for access to any information in the possession of JMSS.

A copy of this manual is also available on the website of JMSS at www.jmss.co.za. In addition, the manual is available for public inspection (such inspection being free of charge) at the registered offices of JMSS during office hours and upon request. A copy of the manual can also be obtained from the South African Human Rights Commission.
